

Lesson 19

Take this 10-question quiz on the information presented in Lesson 19 and submit it for assessment.

- 1. What does the term hosting mean, specifically when it comes to getting podcasts online?
 - a. A person whose job it is to host a podcast.
 - b. A site allows you to upload and store your podcasts and generate an RSS feed.
 - c. Someone who stands at the front of a restaurant and tells you how long you must wait.
 - d. A site that connects your podcasts with their large number of users.
- 2. Which of these podcast hosting sites allows you to post up to 3 hours of podcasts per month for free?
 - a. Soundstorm.com
 - b. Soundstream.com
 - c. Soundcloud.com
 - d. SoundofMusic.com
- 3. What happens if you don't use a podcast hosting or distribution site and post a link to your podcast audio file on a school website?
 - a. The file will download if a user clicks on it.
 - b. The file will play if a user clicks on it
 - c. The file will self-destruct if a user clicks on it
 - d. Nothing.
- 4. What does the term embed mean, specifically referring to podcasts?
 - a. When someone is sleeping comfortably.
 - b. Make a podcast available in a branded audio player on any website.
 - c. The ability to download a podcast to your mobile device.
 - d. The ability to upload your podcast to YouTube.com

Lesson 19

5. Which of these websites is a podcast distribution site?
- Google
 - Twitter
 - TikTok
 - Spotify
6. Why do you need a podcast distribution site?
- They take your podcast RSS feed and make it available to all their listeners.
 - They allow you to add commercials to your podcasts.
 - They send your podcast to everyone in your school community via email.
 - They make you famous. Always.
7. What is the main difference between podcast hosting sites and podcast distribution sites?
- Hosting sites allow you to upload and store your podcasts and provide you with an RSS feed. Distribution sites usually do not host your podcasts, but instead make your RSS feed available to their users.
 - Distribution sites allow you to upload and store your podcasts and provide you with an RSS feed. Hosting sites make your RSS feed available to their users.
 - Hosting sites create your podcasts for you. Distribution sites sell your podcasts for you.
 - There is no difference
8. Which of these sites allow you to both host AND distribute your podcasts?
- Spotify
 - iTunes
 - Soundcloud
 - TikTok

Lesson 19

9. To get your RSS feed available on a podcast distribution site, all you need is:
 - a. An account
 - b. The RSS feed URL
 - c. The URL of the host site
 - d. Your podcast audio file

10. What is the term for allowing users to sign up to be notified whenever a new podcast episode is released?
 - a. Notifications
 - b. Streaming
 - c. Screaming
 - d. Subscribe